

Speaker: Patrik Nellinger

Profile

Patrik Nellinger (Solution Owner TDM Global Line)

Since his degree in mechanical engineering, Patrik Nellinger has worked in the area of software development for the automation of production processes for more than 25 years. Initially, he gained extensive practical experience in CAM and offline programming of production machinery and robots. He has worked for TDM Systems in the area of CAM integration, Tool Data & Tool Lifecycle Management for the last eight years. As a TDM Global Line Solution Owner, he is currently in charge of creating the roadmap and development planning for TDM Global Line.

Title

- TDM Global Line 2022: Presentation of news and highlights

Focus / Target Group

- TDM Global Line existing customers
- TDM Global Line new customers
- TDM Global Line decision makers
- TDM Global Line user

Duration

- 20 minutes

Focal Points/ Contents

Patrik Nellinger will present the innovations of the Global Line release 2022 in this webinar. This includes expansions and improvements in various modules and apps, such as:

- New administration features for significantly more transparency when using Global Line
- Easier crib management: Optimization of crib and logistics applications
- Expanded ERP interface for consistent order processes
- CAM integration: Greater visualization for CAM parameters and 3D graphics
- Better usability: Comprehensive application improvements and new filter and search functions
- Shopfloor Manager: More transparency regarding tool life optimizes tool provision